Cameron War Hero Gets Fourth Bravery Decoration

War memories—poignant reflections of red, raging battles on the now peaceful poppy hills of far off France, were fresh again today in the mind of a Cameron hero of the World War.

Lieut. James M. Tongate, office manager for the Texas Cotton Co-operative Association, is the veteran whose heorism brings a fourth expression of the gratitude of a nation.

Lieut. Tongate has received from the Secretary of War the medal of the Order of Purple Heart, a placque for military merit dating back to the days of the Revolution and kept alive in the gratitude of a nation for patriots whose exploits have made America's traditions of courage.

Possessing already three awards for bravery under fire, Lieutenant Tongate's record of service is one of the most heroic of his division. Following his exploits he was awarded the American Distinguished Service Cross, the French Croix DeGuere and now comes the Order of the Purple Heart.

Wounded In Argonne

The courageous action for which Lieut. Tongate has been four times cited for bravery, occured in the Battle of Grand Pre in the Argonne Forrest battle area on October 9, 1918. The German army in its retreat from the area had planted machine gun crews in the secluded denseness of the wood lands. The advance of the American troops was being endangered by bursts of machine gun fire from the Germans and many lives were lost. Lieut. Tongate brought his advance to a position held by the Germans. The unit was being held up and it be-

GREEN BROTHERS GIVE SPECIAL FOOD PRICES

A message of importance to food buyers for the week end will be found in this issue of the Herald by C. N. Green & Bro. for Friday and Saturday.

This message with price quotations goes to hundreds of rural and city homes and is in keeping with the Green Brothers policy of faith in newspaper advertising. In addition the big two food sale has been advertised with circulars. The store anticipates a large increase in patrons for the two days based upon the lower prices quoted and the confidence to be placed in the Green store quality, plus the assurance that they will not be undersold on any item.

A special offer to farmers for the days is 10c in trade for fresh eggs.

Price quotations for groceries as well as other lines of mechandising when printed in the Herald go to a great family of readers Thursday night and Friday morning. Saturday business, always the best in the farming section, may be intelligently conducted especially for rural buyers who know by that date where to go and what to buy as a result of the advance advertising.

Father of Killer Asks Mercy of People

Cameron, Texas, Feb. 19, 1933.
To the Editor: Look! Look! closely and read this please sir.

John Booker coming out with his hat raised from the top of his head thanking his white and colored friends for the sympathy they have for him, as an humble and law abiding citizen.

While here I want to say to the young negroes of this town and of other towns, this is the white man's country and the white man's town, but we can live with them if we will be humble. It is no harm to be humble because Jesus Christ was humble.

Jesus said humble was the way from earth to heaven. Now we will see what is the meaning of humble. It will make you kind, honest, friendly and the white man can use you; no doubt about it, the white man is our best friend on this earth and will care for us and protect us if you will

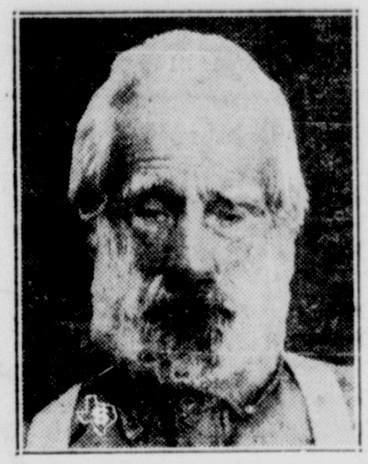
Electricity Cheaper by 39 Per Cent Than Charged in Year 1928

Electricity in 1933 is cheaper by 29 to 39 per cent than in 1928 in the city of Cameron, as shown by a chart of costs to residential consumers, published by the Texas Power & Light Company in the Herald this week.

Based upon 30 killowat hours consumption the cost in 1928 was $3.70. The same number of killowat hours now cost only $2.60. On the 60 killowat use the 1928 cost was $6.40 while the same number in 1933 cost only $4.10. The 100 killowat bill in 1928 was $10.00 and this has been reduced to $6.10 in 1933.

The advertising of the Power Company is educational and valuable information can be obtained from them by the consumers who want to know facts about electricity costs in Cameron.

Oldest Texan Dies



Here is B. L. (Black) Shirley, of Springtown, Texas, who died last week. He was more than 114 years old, according to results of careful research. Shirley was the oldest man in Texas, as far as is known, and one of the oldest in the United States.

How They Voted

Washington, Feb 20—Here's how Texas congressmen voted in the house today on submission of prohibition to the states:

For—Briggs, Buchanan, Cross, Dies, Eagle, Johnson, Jones, Kleberg, Lanham, Mansfield, Rayburn Sumners, Thomason and Williams.

Against—Blanton, Patman and Sanders.

Amendment Goes to States

Washington, Feb. 20—Congress today proposed to the States that national prohibition after its 13 years of turbulent trial be done away by repeal of the 18th amendment.

The house by a vote of 289 to 121, 15 more than necessary, approved the repeal resolution passed last week by the senate. Under it for the first time in American history, conventions of the people are to decide whether the states shall ratify or reject a change in the constitution.

Thirty-six of the 48 states must ratify to carve the 18th amendment out of the national charter and substitute for it a 21st. By its terms, also, the ratifications must occur within seven years from today. With repeal, the amendment carried a specific prohibition of importation of intoxicating liquors into any states remaining dry.

Immediately after the house vote, legislative action was started in more than half a dozen states to make ready for conventions. Only one federal formali remains before the states have the question fully in their keeping. The secretary of state must certify the congressional action to the governors. They will inform the legislatures. In many states, however, the executives already had taken action to rush matters.

Repeal Resolution

Washington, Feb. 20—The proposed 21st amendment to the constitution was adopted by the senate last Thursday and up for a vote in the house today reads:

Joint resolution:

Proposing an amendment to the constitution of the United States.

Resolved, by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled (two-thirds of each house concurring therein.)

That, the following article is hereby proposed as an amendment to the constitution of the United States, which shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the constitution when ratified by conventions in three-fourths of the several states:

Section 1. The eighteenth article of amendment to the constitution of the United States is hereby repealed.

Section 2. The transportation or importation into any state, territory, or possession of the United States for delivery or use therein of intoxicating liquors, in violations of the laws thereof, is hereby prohibited.

Section 3. This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the constitution by convention in the several states, as provided in the constitution, within seven years from the date of the submission hereof to the states by the congress.

George Williams Is Held For Killing Lena Jones, Shooting Two Others in Negro District

Life blood ran red again in the streets of Cameron's Black Belt Monday night and one negro woman is dead from a gun shot wound and her brother lies at death's door in a local hospital shot in the lungs, and the mother of the dead woman was wounded by shot.

The dead are:
LENA JONES, 23.
The wounded are:
LOUIS JONES, 21, shot in the left breast and lungs.
SARAH JONES, 60, slightly wounded by shot.

George Williams, 41, chaufeur and employe of a local cotton office, was arrested at his home shortly after the shooting in a drunken condition and has been placed in jail to await action of the Grand Jury. Williams, according to Sheriff Leonard Blaylock, has made a statement to Criminal District Attorney Simeon M. Burns concerning the killing.

Arrest was made by Deputy Sheriff Will Vaughn and Joe Richter, Deputy City Marshal and night policeman in Santa Fe town.

The negro, said by officers to have been under the influence of liquor, was arrested at the home of F. C. Fahrendorf, prominent local cotton merchant, where he worked, maintaining living quarters in the garage at the home.

Shoots Through Window.

According to officers, Williams is said to have shot and killed Lena Jones, his common law wife, through a window and screen of her home. A pump shot gun belonging to Mr. Fahrendorf was used. The load of shot hit the woman in the center of the upper chest and neck. She was almost instantly killed. Shot sprinkled her mother, Sarah Jones, 60. The home of the negroes is located about two blocks from the negro high school and east. The shot that killed the woman passed through a screen and pane of the window.

Turns On Brother.

Louis Jones, brother of the dead woman, heard the shot that ended the life of his sister and ran from the home of a neighbor in the direc-

Sandy Ridge Against Sale Tax

The following resolution was unanimously adopted at a mass meeting held in the community of Sandy Ridge, Milam County, February 21.

Resolves:

That we, the farmers of this community, depreciate and oppose the Sales Tax bill now pending before the Legislature, and all substitutes and amendments thereto, for the following reasons:

1. Because the plan or system of the Sales Tax is not equal and uniform and is not just.

2. Because the Sales Tax exempts from taxation for state purposes all property of the wealthy, and places the burden and expenses of the state on the great mass of Texas people by means of a tax on the necessities of life that they are forced to buy.

3. Because the law makers — the Governor, the members of the Senate, and the Lower House—having failed to mention or advocate the Sales Tax before the election, they should not now favor or support it. It will show on their part a disregard of the people and of their rights.

4. That a copy of this resolution be furnished to the Governor, to the State Senator from this District, and to each of the Representatives from this county, and to the Ferguson Forum and other newspapers.

5. That our State Senator and each of said Representatives be requested to vote against the Sales Tax now pending before the Legislature and all substitutes and amendments thereto.

EVANGELIST HODGE TO PREACH IN CAMERON

Evangelist Harry H. Hodge, well known Texas revivalist, and founder of the Cameron Gospel Tabernacle will preach here on Monday and Tuesday nights, Feb. 27 and 28. He has things of special interest to Cameron folk to discuss at this time. He will also deliver two special sermons on these nights.

Rev Hodge advocates the Full Gospel message and teaches salvation of the soul, healing of the body, the deeper Spirit-filled life and the second and soon coming of Christ. He believes the present world condition will culminate into the "Tribulation Period" as prophesied in the Bible, and ultimately will end up with the "Battle of Armageddon," which the Bible describes as the greatest of all wars.

Negro Sues Railroad For Death of Child

Charlie Davenport and wife, negroes residing at Minerva, have entered suit against the Southern Pacific Railroad for damages in the amount of $2500 for the death of their daughter, Charlie Bell Davenport in March 1932. Trial of the case was begun in District Court here on Tuesday morning. The girl, 16 years old, was hit and killed by a train while on her way to school at Minerva.

Davenport and wife are represented by W. A. Morrison and the railroad company is being represented by Henderson, Kidd and Henderson.

Valley Farmer Picketing to Hike Price

Force and violence were avoided in the lower Rio Grande Valley of Texas by peaceful pickets who sought to have all growers ask minimum prices of $6 per ton for cabbage and 20c per bushel for other winter vegetables, prices to be paid in cash. Prices as low as $1.75 per ton for cabbage and other crops as low as 4c per bushel caused the farm strike. Here is a picket stopping a truck load of cabbage near San Benito.

Rankin Wins Verdict In Car Wreck Suit

G. A. Rankin was given the verdict by District Judge Graham Gillis in court here in a suit brought against him by J. C. Freeman of Maysfield for $600 damages.

Freeman sued Rankin for damages in the sum of $600 as the result of an automobile wreck in Cameron in March 1932. The Freeman machine was badly damaged and two young women companions of Tyson Freeman, son of J. C. Freeman, were injured, one severely.

Attorneys for Freeman filed a motion for a new trial which will be heard by Judge Gillis in a few days.

The number of accidents recorded were 717 and 241 people were killed and 887 injured. Eight animals were known to be killed and six bridges were destroyed. There were 53 miscellaneous accidents.

It is pointed out that not all accidents have been recorded, but accounts published in Texas newspapers have been, so far as possible, noted. On the cover of the booklet are dozens of newspaper headings, one of which was taken from a recent issue of the Cameron Herald, recording the death of John Jekel.

Accidents resulting from motor vehicles inclued by large majority cotton trucks now permitted to be operated on Texas highways. Commercial trucks were responsible for at least 90 per cent of all accidents recorded.

Of the 6 truck accidents recorded for Milam county, 4 occured at Rockdale and one each at Cameron and Thorndale.

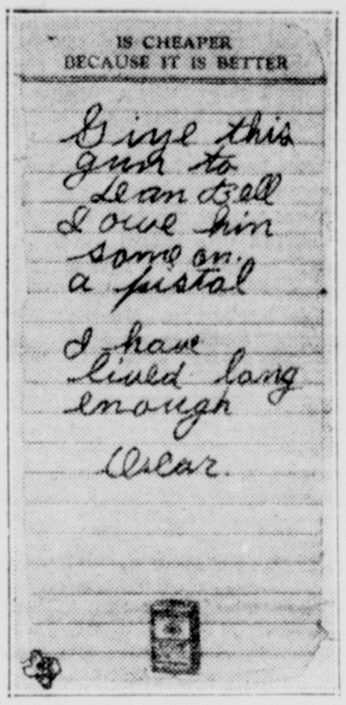
Note Solves Murder



This crude note, left in a gun barrel in the shack of Oscar Robinson, near Brownsboro, Texas, where he was found dead, led to a confession of the murder of W. T. Speer, a neighbor of the slain man. Handwriting experts in Dallas compared the note with the writing of Speer to bring about the confession.

The Road To Better Health

Fainting

By DR. WILLIAM J. SCHOLES

One evening a young man fainted in a moving picture theater. This theater happened to be a small one, and was located in a small town. It was poorly ventilated and was rather crowded. When the young man fainted some of those who were sitting nearby discovered his plight and went to his assistance. They lifted him up into a sitting position and were careful to support his head. As the patient did not recover immediately, it was decided that he should be taken out into the fresh air. So an attempt was made to stand him up on his feet and drag him to the door.

About this time a woman came to the rescue. She told the well-meaning first aid crew that the proper thing to do was to lay the young man down on the floor. Then she sent someone to get a glass of cold water. But the water was unnecessary in this case, as the young man soon recovered after being laid on the floor.

To Restore Blood Circulation

When one faints there is not enough blood in the brain. The anemia of the brain is caused by temporary weakness of the action of the heart. The object of first-aid treatment is to restore the circulation, and particularly to restore the circulation of the blood to the brain. This is best done by laying the patient down so that the head is on a level with, or a little lower than the rest of the body.

Giving the patient plenty of fresh air and sprinkling cold water on the face may, with advantage, be added.

Smelling salts, or a dose of aromatic spirits of amonia in water when the patient is able to swallow, are time honored remedies. But these are usually unnecessary.

The pallor and the almost imperceptable pulse make fainting unlikely to be confused with other conditions causing loss of consciousness. If consciousness does not soon return following the above outlined first aid treatment, the services of a physician should be obtained.

Emotion is quite often the immediate cause of fainting. When the tendency to faint is more or less frequent, a search should be made for the cause. Fainting may be a sign of heart disease, anemia, or some other disturbance which requires attention.

How Doctors Treat Colds and Coughs

To break up a cold overnight and relieve the congestion that makes you cough, thousands of physicians are now recommending Calotabs, the nausealess calomel compound tablets that give you the effects of calomel and salts without the unpleasant effects of either.

One or two Calotabs at bedtime with a glass of sweet milk or water. Next morning your cold has vanished, your system is thoroughly purified and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Eat what you wish,—no danger.

Calotabs are sold in 10c and 35c packages at drug stores. (Adv)

came necessary to capture and destroy the machine gun nest.

Critically Wounded

He took a Shoshone Indian from California, two rifle sergeants and a small complement of machine gunners and started out on the perilous undertaking. Shell fire from distant German artillery made his advance more difficult. Leading his platoon he brought his men into a position of vantage and began the fight. For more than an hour the men fought desperately, inflicting heavy losses on the Germans and finally in an onslaught upon the enemy position captured a large number of prisoners and destroyed the position. In the closing moments of the fight Lieut. Tongate, leading the charge, received a fullisade of machine gun bullets in his right thigh and left leg, one hand also being shot. Falling critically wounded his men took charge and completed the victory. Tongate was carried to the American lines in the arms of German prisoners.

Long Fight For Life

For days Tongate lay at death's door, his leg shattered. So little hope was given him for recovery, his mother in Brownwood was given the Distinguished Service Cross for her distinguished son who had so far as present knowledge went, given his life in battle. The wound, although he does not complain, gives him pain until this day, almost 15 years after it was inflicted by German machine gun fire in France. In the exploit for which he was cited for bravery he did not lose a man. He was 25 years of age. Thereafter began a long fight for recovery. As late as December he was still in a French hospital. On November 4 he was taken to Hospital 115 at Vichey and in December to Base 7 at Savenay, having also been at Contreville at Base 32. In January of 1919 he sailed for the States a stretcher patient aboard a hospital ship, landing at Newport News and from there was sent to the Polo Alto hospital in California. He was discharged from the hospital Letterman General in San Francisco and came back to Brownwood to visit his mother. He was born and reared at Brownwood.

Rare Citation

The placque for merit in the Order of the Purple Heart shows in relief a bust of George Washington set in a purple heart. On the reverse side is the name James M. Tongate. The merit medal was instituted with the organization of the movement in 1782 after the close of the American Revolution in the time of George Washington. Lieut. Tongate prizes this medal above all and although modest in his reference to the war in which he played a distinguished part, he was induced by friends to bring the medal from his home in Waco to exhibit here.

Service Record

Lieut. Tongate enlisted in the Officers Training Camp at Presidio, California in 1917. He graduated as a second Lieutenant of infantry. Although a Texas boy his professional baseball career found him in the far away state of Washington when Congress declared war in 1917. He was pitching for Spokane in the Western Association. He was sent over seas as Lieutenant in Company K, 361st Infantry, 91st Division. Col. W. E. Davis who took the regiment across gave Tongate the order that day to take the machine gun position of the Germans and later caused his exploit to be brought to the attention of the French and American Governments.

Is Great Athlete

Despite his injuries after the war he felt strongly again his call to the diamond. Leaving the hospital in San Francisco he came back to Brownwood and in the fall of 1919 went to A. & M. College as a student and reported to the coach for baseball practice in the spring. He pitched for the Farmers in 1920 and 1921 and in 1923 and 1924 he pitched for Waco in the Texas Association. He now holds a contract with the Western Association as an umpire and each year takes leave of the government cotton service to renew his allegiance to the great American past time.

Like All Veterans

Battle fields have been rich with wheat these 14 years. Red poppies carpet hillsides beneath which old passions sleep forever. Veterans try to forget the poignant threads of pain that reach back through the lines of shadowy legions who march in the grateful memory of a nation at peace. Jim Tongate talks little but remembers much.

ACCIDENT

cellaneous accidents.

It is pointed out that not all accidents have been recorded, but accounts published in Texas newspapers have been, so far as possible, noted. On the cover of the booklet are dozens of newspaper headings, one of which was taken from a recent issue of the Cameron Herald, recording the death of John Jekel.

Accidents resulting from motor vehicles inclued by large majority cotton trucks now permitted to be operated on Texas highways. Commercial trucks were responsible for at least 90 per cent of all accidents recorded.

Of the 6 truck accidents recorded for Milam county, 4 occured at Rockdale and one each at Cameron and Thorndale.

tion of his own home. As he approached and attempted to cross the street, Williams according to officers, turned the gun on Jones and one charge of shot entered his left breast penetrating his lungs. His left hand was badly shot and the upper part of the arm was cut by the charge.

Williams Goes Home

Leaving the scene of the shooting with one woman dead and her brother lying in the street near the home with a charge of shot in his breast and the aged mother sobbing hysterically, Williams went straight to his garage quarters, deposited the gun and seemingly waited the arrival of the officers. He was found there, heavy with liquor, and offering no resistance to officers who took him to jail. According to the statement made by Williams and officers, the shooting occured about 9:45 p. m. Jones was taken to the hospital and is in a critical condition with only a slight chance for recovery.

Details of the Crime.

Williams, according to the officers, made a complete statement, the contents of which was kept secret by District Attorney Burns. It was said he did not deny the shooting but gave details in which he told of the killing. He said, according to Sheriff Blaylock and Deputy Sheriff Vaughn, that earlier in the evening he had quarreled with Lena Jones at the residence of a neighbor, that the woman had seized a cut of fire wood and threatened him with it. He went to the Fahrendorf home about ten blocks away, got the pump shot gun and returned to the scene of the quarrel. In the interval, Lena Jones had returned home. Williams stood outside, leveled the gun barrel at her breast and pulled the trigger, afterwards firing a second shot from the gun at Louis, a brother of Lena Jones, crossing the street coming in the direction of his home.

Williams has been charged with murder and with assault with intent to murder and is being held in jail pending action of the Grand Jury which has been called to convene in early March.

DIZZINESS
relieved by Black-Draught

"I decided to take Thedford's Black-Draught, as I had been having bilious spells," writes Mr. Charles E. Stevens, of Columbus, Ind. "When I get bilious, I feel sleepy and tired and do not feel like doing my work. It is hard to tell how I feel, but I do not feel good. I get awfully dizzy. I know then that I had better take something. After I found how good Black-Draught is, that is what I have used. I guess it rids me of the bile, for I feel better — don't feel like I am dropping off to sleep every time I sit down. That, to me, is a very bad feeling."

Now you can get Black-Draught in the form of a SYRUP, for CHILDREN.

TROOP NO. 52

Scoutmaster Lindle and his assistant, "Shorty" Matula took their gang for a hike to their favorite camping spot in "thick" pasture, Thursday, Feb. 16. There were 20 hikers, which included a committeeman and four visitors.

After a few tests were passed, supper was prepared and eaten. This was followed by blood-curdling, hair-raising ghost story by Senior Patrol Leader C. W. Gjeddy which had all the boys hugging the light of the campfire. A string burning contest was then held, which the X Patrol won easily. The hike ended with the singing of the campfire songs.

The Patrol knot boards were judged Sunday, Feb. 19. The winner being the Fox Patrol by 60 to 40 points. The X patrol wishes to congratulate the Foxes on their splendid work.

Sunday, Feb. 19 some of the boys of No. 52 entertained at a joint meeting of the Taylor and Cameron Councils of the Knights of Columbus. A troop exhibit was also arranged for this occasion.

In the hot patrol contest the Foxes are still leading with 876 points to 503 for the Xs, but the Xs gained 52 points over the last meting.

Look out Foxes, don't forget the story of the turtle and the hare.

PLEA

The white man was in this country before we were; he was the first man to obey God, and he was the first to disobey. Adam was a white man and the law was given from God to Adam and ruler over everything upon this earth. White man yet holds the law in his hands today. Christ was received in this world by a white lady and for that, if our prayers are answered, God works through the white man to us. Many prayers went to God concerning this depression. We can witness the Christian hearted Governor has sent out money that it may reach our distressed, showing God's work through the white man. Our mother's prayers were answered when they were under bondage. God freed them through the white man. It is through leaders on earth that our Almighty God rules heaven and earth.

In my closing remarks please children remember this: the white man is your best friend. It is never too dark or never too bright for him to favor you if you are kind and honest. He is the one to deliver you. He is the one to protect you. Live in a way that the white man can trust you to take care of his infants and be obedient to the mistress of the home.

I was brought to Cameron by Mr. Dobbins of Roscoe, Texas when only 12 years of age, and my teaching from him and my father I expect to hold until God calls me in.

I trust the white folks of Cameron will remember the colored settlement of Cameron. I have tried to prove that it is in your power to destroy or protect. I am asking you all to have sympathy, so much as not to destroy but protect. I can say one thing, we have as good Laws as any place. I kindly thank you.

—John Booker.

Hints for the Household

BY BETTY WEBSTER

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Shoes

Shoes are the most important part of a person's attire. In fact, I have heard it said many times that "one can always tell a gentleman by his shoes." Be that as it may, here are a few hints as to the care of shoes:

1. Keep shoes clean. Always wipe light colored shoes clean with a clean cloth after each wearing. Place on trees and put away carefully covered.

2. To clean tan shoes: Wash tan shoes with warm water and castile soap. Let them dry and then polish in usual way.

3. To remove grease from suede shoes. This works especially well with candle grease spots. Place a piece of brown wrapping paper over grease spot. Hold warm iron over the paper. The spot will be absorbed in this way.

To prevent new shoes from pinching. Lay a cloth moistened in hot water across place where pressure is felt. When cloth becomes cool change it. In this way the leather shapes itself to the foot.

5. A help to keep shoes water proof. Rub bees wax or mutton suet around the boots and shoes.

6. To preserve kid shoes. Rub patent leathers shoes with a little petroleum jelly at night. In the morning wipe off shoes and polish gently.

A Cider Hint.

Cider is a good substitute for brandy and wine in cooking. Cider is nice to serve for refreshments. Cider is a healthy drink. It can be bought in cans and opened when needed.

Egg Substitute

In the winter months when eggs are high, try adding a tablespoon of vinegar with a level teaspoon of soda dissolved in it to your cake instead of egg.

COOKING HINTS

Log Cabin Sandwiches

Butter slices of dark brown bread. Place together as sandwiches. Cut sandwiches into strips. Pile strips on plate criss cross in form of logs and serve with salad.

Chocolate Animals

Buy "animal" crackers. Melt sweet chocolate in a double boiler. By use of dipping forks dip "animal" crackers into chocolate. The children will love these chocolate "animals."

Depreciation of Securities In Escrow Cost Million Gov. Ferguson Declares

Austin, Feb. 20—Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson today advised the Texas legislature that she had been informed depression of securities given by the Security Trust Bank of Austin to protect a state deposit there was likely to cause a loss of from $800,000 to $1,000,000.

She said the securities comprised county, city, irrigation and other district bonds and joint stock land bank stocks, in a total sum of $1,720,613 to secure a state deposit of $1,490,84 placed there by the treasury.

Mrs. Ferguson said she had been informed "the real value of the security is not in excess of an average of 40 cents on the dollar and perhaps less than that sum."

She said should her information be correct, there is an impairment in securities for the state deposit of some $808,629 and that "the state would probably lose anywhere from $800,00 to $1,000,000."

The chief executive also advised she had been informed that although those funds are subject to check under the state depositora law, the Security Trust company is claiming an agreement with the state treasurer to withhold issuing any checks against said fund."

Wins His Point

Wellie Hopkins, state senator from Gonzales, whose oratory before the senate did much to get a senate vote that Lieut-Gov. Witt was the man to pass on the legality of resubmission of F. L. Denison for highway commissioner. The anti-Ferguson faction wanted a ruling from Atty. Gen. Allred.

Helped By Cardui

Here's the true story of how Cardui helped Mrs. H. E. Dunaway, of McComb, Miss., as written by herself:

"I was sick and rather discouraged. I was so weak and thin, I was not able to do my work as it should be done. This made me fret a good deal, and did not help my condition.

"I had pains across my back and lower part of my body. My nights were spent in rolling from one side of the bed to the other, hoping I would soon go to sleep. Then when morning would come, I would be just as tired as when I went to bed. A neighbor, seeing how badly I felt, told me to try Cardui. After I had taken one bottle, I was much better. I kept on taking Cardui, and I was stronger and slept much better at night."

Rheumatism

By J. W. TORBETT, M. D.
Marlin, Texas

Rheumatism is a term used by the laity to indicate pain and soreness in the joints and muscles. If it be acute indicated by fever, soreness and swelling, it is due to bacteria or poisons or toxines absorbed into the blood. All cavities of the body are lined by mucus membranes and on the surface of such membranes are millions of bacteria that constantly grow but many of them do no harm. If these membranes are injured or irritated, they absorb the germs or poisons into the blood and cause various diseases according to the kind of germs absorbed. Certain kinds of germs called streptococci may cause the acute rheumatic fever or acute arthritis. They may be absorbed from any membranes that do not drain well such as the tonsils or sinuses which become swollen or irritated from colds or flu. Seventy-five per cent of all sinus infections indicated by fullness and pain over the eyes, around the eyes, or soreness beneath the eyebrows above the inner corners of the eyes or in the antrum beneath either cheek bone, are the after results of influenza. These remaining infections, chronic infected tonsils, abscesses at the roots of the teeth and infections in the gall bladder or colon are frequent sources of rheumatism of the joints, muscles or nerves.

Chronic cases involving the joints in persons past fifty years of age are due sometimes to germs but usually to weak glands, over eating and defective elimination. Chronic rheumatism is made worse and often brought on by over work, bad weather, exposure, etc. and such cases should change the diet entirely using less of any articles of food that have been used much and reducing the amounts of all foods eaten, if the weight is above normal.

Avoid much exercise and rest some after the noon meal, especially if the feet or knees be involved. Warm baths at night, rubbing all joints affected toward the body deeply but gently, is a good method of treatment all should use. A liniment rubbed in after the bath of one teaspoonful of camphor of Kerosine each and one tablespoonful of oil of Wintergreen with enough olive oil to make four ounces is often very helpful. The diet should include some fruits and vegetables as a rule. Turnip greens have recently been shown by the United States Public Service to have more vitamins than lettuce and to be especially curative in all cases of pellagra. They are also beneficial in rheumatism as a part of a wholesome diet.

VOCATIONAL AGRICULTURAL STUDENTS TOP PECAN TREES

Since the native seedling pecans are inferior in most cases to the improved varities or papershell pecans, much attention is being to top working the native trees and budding them to the better grades. Some work has been done locally along this line but it is just beginning. Cameron is very fortunate in that the soil in most every part of the city is adapted to pecan growing. Large numbers of native trees are growing in the yards of many local homes. In most cases a small, thick shell and inferior nut is produced. These trees can be topped during the winter months and the following summer may be budded to choice varities.

Each year this work is presented to the agricultural students as a part of their year's work. Last fall a few trees were topped and the following summer budded to papershell varities. Very satisfactory work was done by the boys where it was attempted. This year about twenty trees have been topped. There are many others that should be topped. About three weeks remain in which this work can be done without injury to the trees. This class will be glad to top any number of trees in the city limits. The work will be done free and budding at the proper time will also be done without any charge. If you have a pecan tree in your yard and you have been wishing that it could be made a producer of larger pecans, now is the time to get the work done. Telephone your wishes to the High School or call number 1.

"WE HAVE IT"

Mother of 7—Still Young

THE woman who gives her organs the right stimulant need not worry about growing old.

Her system doesn't stagnate; her face doesn't age. She has the health and "pep" that come from a lively liver and strong, active bowels.

When you're sluggish and the system needs help, don't take a lot of "patent medicines." There's a famous doctor's prescription for just such cases, and every druggist keeps this standard preparation. It is made from fresh laxative herbs, active senna, and pure pepsin. Just ask for Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin. Take a little every day or so, until every organ in your body feels the big improvement.

The next time you have a bilious headache, or feel all bound-up, take this delicious syrup instead of the usual cathartic. You'll be rid of all that poisonous waste, and you haven't weakened the bowels. You'll have a better appetite, and feel better in every way. The constant use of cathartics is often the cause of a sallow complexion and lines in the face. And so unnecessary!

Would you like to break yourself of the cathartic habit? At the same time building health and vigor that protects you from frequent sick spells, headaches, and colds? Get a big bottle of Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin today. Use often enough to avoid those attacks of constipation. When you feel weak and run-down or a coated tongue or bad breath warns you the bowels need to be stimulated. Give it to children instead of strong laxatives that sap their strength. It isn't expensive.

This was a very delightful occasion. The music was unusually peppy and those tripping the steps of many years ago enjoyed them exceedingly.

Misses Katherine Bailey and Ennis Turner, dressed in colonial costumes, met the guests at the stairway, presenting them with the tickets which were numbered. The lucky winner received a pretty hand painting at the close of the evening.

DELPHIAN CHAPTER

The Delphian Chapter met in the home of Mrs. Niley Smith Tuesday afternoon. This attractive home was in beautiful adornment featuring a George Washington motif. This was responded to by club members, who played compositions of the three composers. Beethoven numbers were given by Miss Lucille Dickard and Miss Alice Adele Wilkerson. Schubert's numbers were interpretated by Mrs. R. P. Jeter and Miss Dickard. Weber's Barcarolle was sung by Miss Inez Evans.

Delightful refreshments were served at the close of the program with Miss Rose Rischar in charge.

That someone would patent and sell,
An onion with an onion taste
